

Find what you need for Growing Kids

Child Care Resource

South Burlington School District

Providing Early Essential Education (EEE) services and support for community preschool education to ensure smooth transitions to kindergarten.
Call: 652-7250

Child Care Resource

A non-profit human service organization that helps families and providers make child care connections, strengthens early learning programs, and creates innovative solutions for communities.

Call: 863-3367

Community Programs & Activities

Opportunities for families and children to come together to socialize and have fun. Playgroups, story times, events, and more.
Call: 863-3367 x 131

Children's Integrated Services

Children's Integrated Services

A range of coordinated prevention and early intervention services that promote a child's growth and development and support parenting families with children prenatal-age 6.
Call: 860-4426

Early Care & Education Programs

A wide array of family child care programs, child care centers, and preschool options that support children's development and families' participation in the labor force.

Call: 863-3367

Social Services/Basic Needs

For families needing support with the basics- food, housing, heating, medical insurance, job training, and more.
Call: 2-1-1

Health Care

Doctors, dentists, doulas, and other health related services.

Contact information:
www.childcareresource.org/for-everyone

Sponsored by: Growing Kids South Burlington, a collaborative project of the South Burlington School District and Child Care Resource.
For more information about services and supports, visit: www.childcareresource.org/growing-kids

For information about activities and events for South Burlington families, visit: www.growingkidssouthburlington.blogspot.com Questions? E-mail us: GrowingKids@childcareresource.org.